No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true;
Arms and safety to the sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner our faith must save.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 27, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

THE POPE AND THE SANITARY COMMISSION.—It is very safe to claim that the world has never before seen an association of such efficient and comprehensive beneficence for the alleviation of the horrors of war, as is presented in our own Sanitary Commission. [illegible] from the crowd of wounded sufferers at Fredericksburg [illegible] the United States Sanitary Commission—for the great fairs, and all who [illegible] have put money into its treasury [illegible] tributors not actually in the field to see for themselves, can begin to appreciate the good being done with their money. Those of us here both see and feel, as we take our frequent [illegible] rounds among the many [illegible] of wounded men who crowd the floors [illegible] in hundreds of houses [illegible] of the hospital camps in the field.

The comprehensive plans of the Sanitary Commission in supplying [illegible] every description in the most astonishing quantities, supplying information and [illegible] are such as never before entered [illegible] nation engaged in such [illegible] after the battles of Waterloo [illegible] many volunteered [illegible] preparation and transportation [illegible] those of the army was entirely [illegible] the Crimean War, Miss Nightingale [illegible] band of volunteers, broke ground [illegible] of nursing, ground which [illegible] thousands in this country, from Miss Dix to her many assistants all over the land [illegible] Everett in his Gettysburg address [illegible] brethren and sisters of charity [illegible] wounds of the poor sufferers that have shed their blood for the country [illegible] hereafter say "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

It is with no small pleasure that we learn that the beneficence of the Sanitary Commission has been recognized by a direct pecuniary contribution from His Holiness the Pope of Rome. The Buffalo Commercial furnishes the correspondence from which this appears, as follows:

BUFFALO, May 12th, 1864.

Madam—The Sovereign Pontiff Pope Pius IX has, through His Eminence, Cardinal Barnaby [illegible] me that with the deepest sorrow and with the most fraternal interest he has heard of the [illegible] gallant soldiers wounded in our many battles, and that he desires me, to give in his name, an [illegible] of his private purse, $500 as some aid to alleviate their sufferings.

Your truly providentially organized society has done very much to aid our wounded soldiers; hence it seems to me that there can be no better means of accomplishing the kind and paternal wish of His Holiness than to hand over to you this [illegible] $500 with my humble [illegible] God's blessing may not only rest on our fallen wounded soldiers [illegible] of your Commission [illegible]

Accept the expressions of respect and esteem with which I have the honor [illegible]

Your most obedient humble servant,
JOHN, Bishop of Buffalo.

BUFFALO, May 1[illegible], 1864.

RT. REV. JOHN TIMON—Dear Sir—It is with no ordinary feelings we acknowledge the receipt at your hands of $500 from the Sovereign Pontiff Pope Pius IX for the [illegible] soldiers. Large contributions have been received from foreign countries for this humane object. We are deeply [illegible] our present struggle [illegible] dorsement of [illegible] ties, which we believe to be the most noble, humane and efficient one through which the good will of a Christian people can be done [illegible] the wounded patriots in field or hospital. [illegible] present, our thanks to his Holiness [illegible] the munificent act, the grateful acknowledgments of the society. [illegible]

Yours truly,
Mrs. HORATIO SEYMOUR, President.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. Brown's Bronchial Troches give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places that surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone to deranged stomach, assist ... vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. ... who is exposed to ... and day, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. ...

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.
